Procedure 6.6: Dress Code and Business Casual Dress Code
Volume 6
Managing Office: Office of Human Resources
Effective Date: April 7, 2011

I. PURPOSE

This Procedure sets forth the obligations of the employees Alabama A&M University (“AAMU” or “the University”) related to employees’ adherence to the AAMU business dress and business casual dress code. It is imperative that all Alabama A&M University faculty and staff project a professional image while at work or work-related functions by being appropriately attired. The requirement to dress professionally is applicable to all full and part time AAMU personnel, as well as to adjunct faculty, student employees, contractors, and volunteers.

II. DEFINITIONS

1. “Employees” means all individuals receiving any form of monetary compensation from AAMU. Employees include, but are not limited to, full-time and part-time staff; full-time and part-time faculty (including adjunct or temporary faculty); undergraduate and graduate student employees; and temporary or contract personnel.

2. “Uniform Personnel” are personnel who are required to report to work in a standard uniform as selected and mandated by AAMU. Uniform personnel include, but are not limited to, police officers, public safety officers, physical facilities personnel.

3. “Special Category Personnel” are employees whose job duties require that they wear non-business attire in the workplace. Special Category Personnel include, but are not limited to, physical education staff, coaches, Wellness Center staff, lab technicians, agricultural field workers.

III. AAMU DRESS CODE/ PERSONAL APPEARANCE POLICY

Section 7.3 of the AAMU Staff Handbook (1993) and Section 6.13 of the AAMU Faculty/Administrative Staff Handbook (2003) address the University’s dress code and personal appearance standards. AAMU Employees are expected to be neat, clean and well-groomed while performing professional duties at AAMU or an off campus location. As such, excellent grooming standards are to be maintained at all times while at work and attire that results in distraction of other employees or disruption of the work of the department is prohibited.
All non-uniform and non-special category AAMU personnel are expected to wear standard business attire that is consistent with standards for a professional environment at all times unless they elect to wear business casual attire on Fridays. Examples of standard business attire are “dress” shirts and slacks or suits for men and “dress” skirts, blouses, slacks, dresses and suits for women. Acceptable business footwear includes men’s dress shoes and loafers as well as heels/pumps or loafers for women.

IV. BUSINESS CASUAL DRESS CODE

I. Business Casual Dress Guidelines – Friday Only

“Business casual dress” is an optional privilege and acceptable only on Fridays. Fridays have been designated as a “business casual” dress day for non-uniform personnel. Business casual is a privilege that is offered to provide a more comfortable and relaxed work atmosphere on Fridays. Casual dress day may be revoked on an individual, a unit, or a department-wide basis if the guidelines delineated in this memorandum are not adhered to by AAMU personnel who elect to wear business casual clothing on Fridays. Attire bearing AAMU logos, slogans, insignia, etc. may only be worn if it is included in the acceptable business casual standards examples outlined below.

Please note that University personnel are not required to dress in business casual attire on Fridays. For example, an employee may not have an appropriate business casual wardrobe or may have a meeting that requires dress in regular business attire on a Friday.

V. SPECIAL CATEGORY PERSONNEL ATTIRE

Physical education staff, coaches, Wellness Center Staff, etc. may choose to wear clothing appropriate to their assignments (e.g., sweat pants, exercise pants, wind pants and shirts, sneakers, etc.) provided that the attire does not display potentially offensive logos or other symbols. Such apparel must also be in good repair and free from excessive fading, tearing, and fraying. Tank tops, mesh (see through) and muscle shirts are unacceptable.

Other Special Category Personnel (e.g., lab technicians, agricultural field workers, etc.) may wear clothing that is appropriate for their work duties and assignments provided that the attire does not display potentially offensive logos or other symbols. Such apparel must be in good repair and free from excessive fading, tearing, and fraying.

VI. COMPLIANCE

All University personnel must use their best judgment when maintaining appropriate professional attire and appearance. Administrators reserve the right to determine appropriateness. AAMU personnel who are improperly dressed may be counseled by their supervisor or in severe cases may be sent home to change clothes. Employees will have such time charged to accrued annual leave or taken as leave without pay. If an employee is warned regarding unacceptable attire and/or sent home on multiple occasions, then a written warning will be issued and placed in his or her personnel file. Continued disregard of the dress code and business casual dress standards may be cause for further disciplinary and corrective action, up to and including termination of employment.
