Rules and Regulations

Only students registered with the Office of Career Development Services are eligible.

Contestants are to write an original essay on the designated topic, accompanied by a list of the sources consulted in researching the essay and completed application form.

ESSAY TOPIC:

“YMTF 2013: "Launch Your Dreams, Land Your Success."

All submissions must be a minimum of three but no more than five pages in length (excluding the list of sources).

Each essay must reflect the contestant’s own research, writing and original thinking.

Only one (1) essay may be submitted per contestant.

The application form (copy form as needed), original work and list of sources must be submitted to the Office of Career Development Services by the deadline.

Paper size must be 8.5 by 11-inch with one-inch margins on all sides.

Entries must be typed, double-spaced (including the list of works cited), in 12 - point Times New Roman or an equivalent font.

Pages must be numbered consecutively throughout the manuscript (including the first page) in the upper right-hand corner of each page. Type your last name before the page number. This feature makes the appearance and consistency of the page numbering a great convenience.

Staple each copy of the essay with a copy of the application form in the front on the upper left hand corner.

ALL ESSAYS MUST BE SUBMITTED NO LATER THAN 12:00 noon Friday, March 29, 2013. (Faxes and emails will not be accepted.)

Submissions will be judged based on comprehension, organization, conclusion, creativity and writing skills.

Entries will not be returned. All winning submissions will become the property of the Office of Career Development Services.

Winners will be notified no later than Monday, April 8, 2013.

Contest winners will be invited to the Youth Motivation Task Force Student Motivation Awards Luncheon to be held on April 9, 2013. The first place winner may be required to read his/her essay during the ceremony.

All decisions by the judges are final.
