The Office of Field Experiences

Fall 2009

Within the context of other units of the University, the School of Education views its mission as that of preparing P-12 teacher candidates and other school personnel to be effective educators as service professionals who can help all students learn.

The role of the Office of Field Experiences is to conduct the activities of Process C (Performing) of the School of Education Conceptual Framework for preparing P-12 teachers and other school personnel.
