Round Table

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The AAMU Corporate and Educational Round Table, designed to promote excellence at all levels of education via sustained engagement with policy makers and business leaders, is accepting papers for its inaugural Round Table scheduled May 20-25, 2007. The major topic and four suggested sub-topics include:

"Leadership for a Global Society"

- Ethical Leadership -
- Operationalizing Diversity -
- Global Preparedness -
- Government-Corporate-Industry and University Partnerships -

Modeled after the Oxford Round Table in Oxford, England, The Round Table at AAMU will convene experts, scholars, policy makers, and business leaders from around the world to present, discuss, and debate major educational and corporate policy issues of international impact. Papers selected for presentations will be considered for inclusion in a peer-reviewed publication, Journal of Corporate and Educational Relations.

Registration Fee for Round Table participants is $2,500. Spouse/Guest fee is $1,000. The registration fee covers cost of attendance, publications, all lodging (on campus), meals, receptions, and refreshment/coffee/tea breaks.

Please submit abstracts to: Dorothy W. Huston, Ph.D., Executive Director, AAMU-CERT, P. O. Box 1122 - Normal, AL 35762 - (256) 372-8189.
