

Marvin D. Adcock
424 Riverview Circle
Florence AL. 35630
(205) 767-1132 (Home)
(256) 372-4792 (Work)

Education: Masters of Science, Economics, Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical University- 1999, Normal Alabama.
School of Business Dean's Honor List 1998-1999, Delta Mu Delta
Awarded Highest Academic Average in Graduate Economics Program

Birmingham School of Law, Juris Doctorate 1992
Birmingham, Alabama

Birmingham Southern College - 1987
Birmingham, Alabama

Expertise: Proficient in use of Econometrics and Statistical Modeling Techniques using computer software including MINITAB, SPSS and Excel.

Experience: Alabama Agriculture and Mechanical University, August 1999 to present.
Instructor of Economics. Current teaching assignments includes Principles of Macroeconomics and Microeconomics, Business Statistics, Basic Economics and Legal Environment of Business

Walker County Revenue Commission, July 1995 - July 1999
Business Personal Property Tax Analyst

Walker County District Attorney's Office, June 1989 - June 1995
Duties included prosecution and trial preparation of felony and misdemeanor offenses, wrote appellate briefs and presented arguments before Alabama Board of Pardons and Parole.

Professional Organizations Member of Academy of Economics and Finance, Southwest Economic Association and the Alabama Academy of Science. Research papers presented before each organization.

Research and Presentations Southwest Social Science Association, presented paper on topic of student performance indicators in 2002 in Galveston Tx..

Academy of Economics and Finance Association, Presented Paper on Redevelopment and Reconstruction of Afghanistan 2001 in Nashville Tn.

Alabama Academy of Science, Presented paper on topic of Public School Student Performance and Public School Funding. 2001

Current Paper to be presented and submitted for publication include “The Growth Rate of the Short Term Consumer Lending Industry in Alabama to be presented in Dallas Texas at the International Academy of Business and Public Administration Conference on April 20-23, 2006