

Alabama A. & M. University Welcome to Printing Services

Welcome to the Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical University Printing Services website. We are your on campus, full-service printer that has proudly served the AAMU community for over 100+ years. AAMU Printing Services is located in the Councill Training Building on Meridian Street. We do much more than your business cards and stationery items. We are equipped to provide quality design and color printing for virtually anything you need—books, magazines, brochures, newsletters, folders, posters, and more. AAMU Printing Services can provide design services from concept to completed piece or you may bring us your output-ready files for processing.

We are a customer oriented business within the AAMU family, and we strive to provide excellence in customer service, as well as competitive pricing for all our services in support of the university's mission to educate it's students. To ensure your complete satisfaction, we guarantee our agreed upon delivery dates and the quality of our work.

Because we are a part of the AAMU community, we understand the unique problems of university departments and organizations, as well as the seasonal pace of academic schedules and deadlines. We constantly seek to strengthen our existing relationships and develop new ones through open and honest communication, shared ideas and experiences, and common goals. We take pride in our work and we appreciate our customers.

Whether it is a simple black and white job or a larger project requiring design and critical color printing, we are ready to serve you. We will be happy to meet with you and provide estimates for your particular projects. Give us a call or drop by and let us show what we can do for you!
