2014 Academic Honors Convocation Information (Q & A)

The Annual Academic Honors Convocation is held the first Thursday of every April. This year the Convocation will be held on Thursday, April 3, 2014 at 12:30pm in the T.M. Elmore Building. Attendees should arrive by 11:45 a.m.

What is the Honors Convocation?
The Honors Convocation is an opportunity for the university community to recognize the academic achievements of undergraduate students with full-time enrollment.

Who is recognized?
Students who made the Dean's List, Honor Roll, Freshman Honor Roll, Freshman President’s Award list and those students receiving the coveted Presidential Medallion in either the spring or fall semester of 2013 are recognized. Special recognition is given to Honors program participants, Honda team members, Scholar Athletes, Members of Alpha Kappu Mu Honors Society, and students selected as the Outstanding Scholar representing the Academic College of their major.

All honorees must arrive between 10:45 and 11:45 a.m. to receive their printed name card for recognition. They must report to the tables set up on the 1st floor of the far left entrance. As indicated on the printed program, Honor Roll and Presidential recipients will come forward and present the name card to the announcer. Dean’s List recipients will stand and have their name called by the announcer. Students arriving after the deadline will not be recognized.

Who is invited?
Everyone! Families and friends of recognized students are encouraged to attend along with anyone from the university and Huntsville community.

What Do I Wear?
Only those students who are professionally dressed will be recognized. For males – dress slacks, necktie, jacket or suit (no caps or hats); For females – nice dress (at or below the knee), skirt (at or below the knee) or pants suit. Students wearing t-shirts, shorts, jeans, tennis shoes, halter tops, and/or miniskirts WILL NOT be recognized at the Honors Convocation. Stage participants dress in full academic regalia. Please see the special link for examples of appropriate attire.
