Letter from the Chairman of the Alabama A&M University Board of Trustees Nominating Committee

Members of the Alabama A&M University Family:

Section 16-49-20 of the Code of Alabama, which contains a portion of the enabling statute which governs Alabama A&M University, created a nominating committee to select a list of three persons to submit to Governor Kay Ivey as candidates to fill vacancies which may occur on the Alabama A&M University Board of Trustees ("Board"). At the request of Governor Ivey, the Nominating Committee is being reactivated to receive nominations and make recommendations to the Governor to fill vacancies on the Board of Trustees for Alabama A&M University.

The vacancies for which nominations are to be received relate to the following Board positions:

Congressional District Six. This position represents the Sixth Congressional District, as constituted on September 5, 1975, for a new term. The current term for this position expires December 14, 2022. The trustee currently holding this position is not eligible for reappointment.

Congressional District Five. This position represents the Fifth Congressional District, as constituted on September 5, 1975, for a new term. The current term for this position expires January 31, 2023. The trustee currently holding this position is not eligible for reappointment.

Congressional District Seven. This position represents the Seventh Congressional District, as constituted on September 5, 1975, for a new term. The current term for this position expires January 31, 2023. The trustee currently holding this position is eligible for reappointment.

In our effort to ensure a fully open, inclusive and transparent process, we are opening the nomination period to search for and select three (3) nominees for each vacancy on the Board. The time within which the Nominating Committee must act is short. We encourage all interested individuals to apply by submitting a nomination application and supporting materials. Information concerning the application process can be found on the University website at www.aamu.edu/board. Your completed nomination package may be submitted through one of the two following methods:

E-mail to: alicia.ford@dentons.com; or

Mail to: Board of Trustees Nominating Committee

P.O. Box 18248

Huntsville, Alabama 35804-8248

Please note that your nomination package must be submitted and received by 5:00 p.m. CST on March 21, 2023.

The Nominating Committee is looking for influential leaders who are forward-looking, service-oriented and committed to furthering Alabama A&M University's instruction, research and extension missions. After we receive nominations, the Nominating Committee will schedule a meeting based on members' availability to select nominees. The Nominating Committee may receive names from any source. If the Nominating Committee elects to have further meetings or to conduct interviews in connection with this process, these dates will be announced at a later date. The Nominating Committee consists of one member from the Alabama A&M University Board of Trustees, one member of the Alabama A&M University family selected jointly by the Faculty Senate and the Staff Senate, the president of Alabama A&M University's Student Government Association, a representative designated by the President of the Huntsville-Madison County Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Madison County Legislative Delegation as selected by the delegation, the president of the National Alumni Association, and a community representative selected by other members of the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee will select three individuals for each vacancy to submit to Governor.

Please review the following requirements applicable to those that apply or are nominated to serve on the Alabama A&M University Board of Trustees:
