

The "Write Place"

AAMU

WHAT WE DO

The purpose of "The Write Place" is to focus on developing writers—not just writing! We promote writing as a process and work with writers at every stage of writing. Whether you have an idea or a fully developed draft, we're happy to partner with you!

WHAT WE DON'T DO

The Writing Center is NOT an editing service. Your paper will NOT be edited and returned to you error free. Our job is to help you better understand and improve your writing. Thus, you can expect from us suggestions on how you can improve the overall format, structure, validity, and content.

The screenshot shows the Alabama A&M University Writing Center website. At the top is a navigation bar with links like 'COVID-19 Information', 'Apply', 'Give', 'Visit Us', 'Play Online', 'Directory', 'Library', 'Inside AAMU', and 'myAAMU'. Below this is a header with the university logo and a search bar. The main banner features a vintage typewriter with the text 'THE ALABAMA A&M UNIVERSITY WRITING CENTER'. Below the banner is a section titled 'WELCOME TO THE "WRITE PLACE"' with two images: one of students working at a table and another of a student using a laptop. Below these images is a paragraph of text: 'Our services are free for all AAMU students and our tutors come from a variety of academic disciplines with specialized training to work with all types of writing and writers. Our center also has other writing resources that writers can access for help with such things as research documentation, avoiding plagiarism or reviewing the rules of punctuation and grammar. (Click the dropdown menu above to see more services.)'. Below the text are four buttons: 'Book Appointment', 'Student Resources', 'Scholarships', and 'Staff'. At the bottom are two promotional posters. The left poster says 'want to be a better writer? Come to the The Writing Center! Zoom Appointments Available Monday-Friday www.aamu.edu/writingcenter'. The right poster says 'WE CAN BRING THE TUTORS TO YOU! VIRTUAL TUTORING at the The "Write Place" ZOOM CONFERENCE E-CONSULTATION'. At the very bottom, a small note states: 'The "Write Place" will provide virtual services until further notice.'
