

THURGOOD MARSHALL COLLEGE FUND

SOAR HBCU SCHOLARS PROGRAM

The Thurgood Marshall College Fund (TMCF) HBCU Scholars Program is a one-week residential summer program for high-achieving current high school juniors. This program will be held on the campuses of Alabama A&M University and Drake State Community and Technical College during the week of July 6-11.

The program serves students by providing a unique opportunity to learn about HBCU and HBCC institutions, college admissions, financial aid, and scholarship resources, academic majors and career pathways. This program is free to all participants. Application deadline is May 15.

Scan to apply now

JULY 6-11

A PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN

For more information visit drakestate.edu or aamu.edu